DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on an application filed in Japan on December 11, 2002. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified copy of the JP 2002-358852 application as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b).

Claim Objections

2. Claims 4-6 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim should refer to other claims in the alternative only and cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n).

The applicant has reverted back to the original claims 4-6. For the purposes of prior art, the Examiner has examiner the previously presented claims 4-6

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-4 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bauer (US Patent 5,209,316).

Regarding claim 1, Bauer discloses a cab supporting structure supporting a cab (16) against a vehicle frame (14) via an attenuation mechanism (62), wherein a regulation member (10), only when predetermined displacement is generated in the cab in the extension direction of the attenuation mechanism, regulating the displacement (46 reaching the top of slot 44) is provided separately from this attenuation mechanism (62).

Regarding claim 2, Bauer discloses the cab supporting structure according to claim 1, wherein said regulation member (10) has a cab side member (20) attached to the cab side, and the cab side member (20) is in a non-interferential relation with said vehicle frame side (14) in a normal condition (Fig. 4).

Regarding claim 3, Bauer discloses the cab supporting structure according to claim 1 or claim 2, wherein said regulation member (10) regulates displacement of the cab before (via 52 and the top end of the slot) a stroke end of said attenuation mechanism (62).

Regarding claim 6, Bauer discloses the cab supporting structure according to claim 1 or 2, wherein, when rigidity of said cab is set to be larger at the rear side than at the front side, said regulation member is provided at least at the rear side of the cab (Fig. 1).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bauer in view of Applicant's Admission (Figs. 17 and 20).

Bauer discloses the cab supporting structure according to claim 1 or 2. Bauer does not disclose that there is an operation machine. The Applicant's admit in Figs. 17 and 20 that a cab supporting structure with an operation machine and the attenuation device taught by Bauer is known (Fig. 20). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to use the regulation member as taught by Bauer in a cab structure with an operation machine as taught by the Applicant's admission in Fig. 20.

8. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bauer in view of Keechner et al. (US Patent 5,388,884).

Regarding claim 4, Bauer discloses the cab supporting structure according to claim 1 or 2. Bauer does not disclose that the regulation member (10) is arranged between a column of the cab (16) and the vehicle frame (14). Keechner et al. disclose a cab supporting structure with the regulation member arranged between a column (24) and the vehicle frame. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to mount the regulation member between the column of the cab and the vehicle frame. The motivation would have been to best support the vehicle cab.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-6 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art discloses other regulation devices for cab structures.
